

Strategic Partnerships Plus
Contact seminar creating bridges between business and education/training/youth sectors
3-7 November 2015, Sinaia, Romania

Deadline: by 15th of September 2015

Host: ANPCDEFP, Romanian National Agency for Community Programmes in the Field of Education and Vocational Training

Introduction

“Strategic Partnerships Plus” is a three days event aiming to develop viable cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships in order to be submitted under Key Action 2 (for the future 2016 deadline). It will gather representatives from schools, VET organisations, public institutions and public authorities, youth association, NGOs, companies, social entrepreneurship.

ANPCDEFP managed both Lifelong Learning and Youth in Action programmes over the last seven years, therefore an experience regarding the cross-sectoral cooperation is reflected both internally in the NA as well as among beneficiaries. Building up from this experience, the event to be organized aim to have a more integrated approach in order to maximize the strength of all fields (either school, formal education, nonformal learning through youth work and adult learning or vocational training).

The Theme

The thematic focus will be the involvement of the enterprises/companies in strategic partnership projects. Erasmus+ frame offers both the opportunity and the appropriate tools to connect educational field and labour market. The two sectors must develop synergies in order to achieve economical growth and operational objectives from the EU 2020 Strategy.

Actions under Erasmus +

The seminar is addressing all sectors from Erasmus+ eligible for strategic partnerships: education, training and youth.

Aims

Why sending participants?

- To create a space for developing partnerships able to submit good quality applications and implement effectively cross-sectoral Strategic Partnerships
- To provide the necessary information and skills to understand and implement such partnerships
- To provide a space for sharing knowledge and experiences between organizations involved in all types of learning activities.

The event will place the participants in the centre of the learning process through interactive methods while focusing on the understanding of the concepts and specifics of working in international projects. A mix of workshops, facilitated discussions and other active tools will be mainly used while the work results will be presented in the plenary sessions. The activities will be led by experienced facilitators with sound understanding of the learning process and Strategic Partnerships.
