A University with Potential

Mouloud Mammeri University of Tizi-Ouzou (UMMTO, Algeria), founded in 1977, is a multi-disciplinary higher education institution which hosts more than 60.000 students, distributed among 09 faculties comprising a number of departments each. The departments provide disciplinary and, sometimes, cross-disciplinary courses to undergraduate and postgraduate students.

UMMTO ranks among the best universities in Algeria and is looking forward to implement a policy which will increase the international visibility of the research and teachings performed by the highly qualified professors in all disciplines.
