

Background and Experience

Atempo is a non-profit association and independent from parties and the church. The goal of the association is the equality of treatment of all people in our community.

Atempo was founded in the year 2000 by Walburga Fröhlich and Klaus Candussi.

Meanwhile atempo has grown to a group of four interconnected organizations: the association atempo, the non-profit atempo GmbH, the non-profit nueva GmbH and the CFS GmbH. atempo has 80 employees – of which 25 percent are people with disabilities – and is among the leading social corporations in Austria.

atempo is also one of a view specialised European course provider who already trained more than 100 professionals from over 20 European countries in the use of iPads and Tablets in school education and adult learning.

Structured courses of atempo focus on different fields and possibilities to use and integrate new mobile devices into school and adult inclusive education.

The courses will be delivered by an international team of professionals from atempo (Graz, Austria), FAIDD (Helsinki, Finland), The RIX Centre (London), UrAbility (Ireland) and ITA (Germany).
